TRACK TEAM IS SHOWING BETTER FORM

Records Should Be Broken
On Saturday.

ANTLIFF TEAM CAPT.

Team Is Excused From Lectures From 4-6 o'Clock
This Week.

A stiff practice was held by the track team, yesterday afternoon with eighteen men out. The weather was rather cold for the sprinters and they were not able to do anything but practice at quick getaways. Graydon is rapidly getting them into form and they should be all ready and in condition by Saturday. Johnson was the only man who did not turn out among the sprinters and he will be on hand this afternoon for the practice. The men have not been definitely chosen to enter in each event but this will probably be done today.

In the weight events the men are rapidly rounding into form and will be able to compete with the best of the men from the other universities. Much interest was shown by the members of the track team in the results of the meets at Toronto and Kingston and every endeavour will be put forth to beat the records made by these men. MacLellan is improving daily in his hammer throwing and should be hard to beat next Saturday; Dickie is doing very well at the discus and with Notman and MacDonald at the shot put, it will be hard to outclass our weights division. In the jumps Kennedy will probably be paired off with Wells to enter in the Broad Jump. These two will put up some very interesting competition even if no one else were to enter and, with the crack athletes from the other colleges, they will probably extend themselves to the limit. Wells was not in the best of condition last week but will be rounded into shape by the end of the week. Kennedy and Foss are training.

DEBATING SOCIETY TO HAVE MEETING

Cups and Prizes To Be Awarded During Session.

The Literary and Debating Society are holding a meeting this afternoon for the purpose of electing officers. The "Lit" has in the past been one of the most important institutions at McGill. It has always been renowned for its energy and organizing capacity. During the last year several debates were held under the auspices of the club and it was due to the efforts of its executive that General Pau and Monsieur A. Siegfried were persuaded to speak at McGill last year owing to the fewness of the competitors neither the cup for debating nor the prizes for reading were given. But this year both will doubtless be awarded. In former years debating was a great feature of college life, and it is hoped this session to revive the holding of intercollegiate debates.

The Literary and Debating Society is open to all students at McGill. The meeting to be held today is to elect officers and to reorganize the activities of the Society. It will be held at 5 o'clock in the Arts building.

SCIENCE FOOTBALL.

A signal practice of Science football team will be held on small campus at 1.30 p.m. to-day. As many as possible are requested to turn out as this will be the last practice before the game with Medicine on Wednesday. Players are reminded to make their own arrangements for uniforms.

CORRECTION.

It was stated in yesterday's Daily that 55 cents would be charged for the table d'hôte breakfast at the Cafeteria. This was, of course, a mistake. The price is 35 cents.

MANDOLINISTS HELD MEETING LAST EVENING

A Large Number Of New Members Were Present.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The first formal meeting and practice of the Mandolin Club was held last evening at Mr. Peate's Studio. Like all other College Clubs a very large number of new students were present.

The meeting was brought to order promptly at 7.30 and an election of officers took place which resulted in the following being elected for the present session:—

Pres. Arthur A. Scott
Vice-Pres. T. B. Miller
Sec-Tres. N. H. Friedman
The Club then decided to continue holding its meetings on Monday night at 7.15 sharp.

It might be said here that although there are nearly fifty members of the Club, all new comers will be welcomed. The Club this year is bound to be a huge success as it has already been asked to play at several social functions in the near future. If anyone contemplates joining the Club he should do so as early as possible as our next practice will be held on Monday next.

The music that will be played this year will be the newest and anyone need only a moderate knowledge of music to be able to "get up" the pieces. A lot of students think that because they have only a limited knowledge of music they must give up all thought of joining the Club or another excuse is they cannot afford the time. Now, who cannot afford one evening a week spent in improving his musical talent? Ask any of the older members of the Club if they did not pass their year owing to their practicing at the Club meetings. It is a fact that only a certain few take a part in college activities only a few "do anything" for their alma mater. Now, fellows, here is an opportunity for anyone who can play a string instrument to "do something" for his alma mater and also benefit himself. Therefore everyone who can possibly turn out be on hand next Monday evening at 7.15 sharp in Mr. Peate's studio, Corner Ste. Catherine St. and Drummond St.

Dr. Nicholson, the Registrar, stated this evening to a representative of the "Daily" that at last one holiday would be granted during the visit of H. R.H. the Prince of Wales to Montreal. Its date will probably be coincident with that of the civic holiday, but nothing definite has been decided upon yet.

MEDS. MEETING LAST EVENING A FULL HOUSE

Medical Undergraduates Elected Officers.

EXTRAORDINARY MEET.

Undergraduates Most Enthusiastic — Refreshments Served.

With a record crowd of hundreds of Medical Students, filling the great assembly Hall to overflowing, the Medical Undergraduate Society last night, held its opening meeting of the session. The president M. MacDougall took the chair after a few introductory remarks, the minutes were read and the president introduced the speaker of the evening, Prof. Whittrill of the chair of Anatomy.

In the midst of a vigorous applause Prof. Whittrill rose, choosing as his topic some of his experiences in the British Cavalry Medical Corps in France, he recalled in his characteristically amusing manner many of the light and humorous incidences of army life. We have seen too much of the bloody side of war, he said.

When he had obtained his appointment with the starting services urgently required stamped upon, he imagined the British Army dying like flies and in dire straits. So after a which were successively blocked by some obstacle or other he was at length able to reach to France, and was obliged to remain restlessly in a rest camp of some 5000 men, laid up with such serious complaints as sores and aches and pains. Later Prof. Whittrill was sent up the line where in the furious fires salient he underwent numerous interesting experiences. Notably after a long and arduous spell laying cables at St. Etel in the midst of heavy shelling he returned one night to be awakened by an unfortunate individual who had swallowed a bottle of liniment possibly in mistake for a

ENGLISH RUGBY STARTS AFRESH

Big Attendance Anticipated
For To-Night's Re-Organization Meeting at 7.15.

During the past week, much has been suggested and projected about recommencing the activities of the English Rugby Club of McGill University. The Western Club made mention of it at their meeting, correspondents have broached it in these columns, and it has been a constant subject for discussion all over the campus for the past week or so. Accordingly, in response to all these requests, a meeting the outcome of which ought to be renewed football activities, is called for this evening at 7.15 in Strathcona Hall.

This Club in pre-war days had a most enthusiastic following: it was temporarily discontinued for the reason that almost all the enthusiasts were overseas. However, the men are back now, stronger and more fit than ever before in most cases, and just as the men are back, the club, too, has got to come back and it will, judging by the enthusiasm that has been noted of late.

All out then, for the re-organization meeting tonight. If you have ever played English Rugby, or if you have ever wanted to play the game, here is the best opportunity in the world for you to get into the game, the only way to bring college athletics back to their standing is to boost your own favourite branch sport and see that it has its "come-back". English Rugby is going to have its chance this evening and its up to the supporters to turn out and bring it back tonight at 7.15.

W. C. Nicholson, president of the Students' Council would like to see the following in the Union to-day at 6 o'clock:—
N. E. Peterson, Arts Representative.
J. R. Windsor, Science Representative.
Pender, Law Representative.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1919.

BIBLE STUDY

We are not aware that the Daily has ever had any definite policy regarding Bible Study. However, the matter has recently been brought to our attention in connection with the projected organization of discussion groups of which details are set forth elsewhere in this issue.

Bible Study unfortunately suffers a great deal from unreasonable prejudice. Men who ostentatiously pride themselves on their breadth of mind are the personification of narrowness when the question of Bible Study is broached.

Nevertheless, at the risk of being classed among the prejudiced, we are going to take this opportunity of endorsing the efforts of those individuals who are back of the proposed organization. The Daily which is presumably the voice of the student body could not justify its position were it to totally and absolutely disregard a minority regardless of how small it is. As the official organ of the undergraduate body therefore, the McGill Daily must, as far as possible, registers the sentiments of students and furthers the purposes and endeavors of all organizations regardless of prejudice.

The relative merit of the aims, purposes and accomplishments of the various undergraduate clubs and institutions is a question which we have no intention of discussing. It is for each man to decide for himself what importance he is willing to attach to Bible study, football and so forth. We, however, have heartily endorsed the progressive programmes which various organizations have drawn up for the session and with equal sincerity we recognize the effort to inaugurate an efficient system of Bible study in connection with the McGill Y.M.C.A.

Correspondence

The Daily is not responsible for the sentiments of letters published in the correspondence columns. Signed communications from graduates, undergraduates and members of the faculties will be placed in print if they are not of too great length.

Correspondents are requested to observe the unwritten law of the newspaper office—that they write upon ONE side of the paper ONLY. No communication will be admitted in this column without the name of the writer being attached, not necessarily for PUBLICATION.

Montreal, Oct. 20th, 1919

The Editor of the McGill Daily.

Dear Sir,
During the last few weeks there have been appeals in the Montreal papers for Service men of this City to march in the procession to be held in honor of the Prince of Wales.

As far as is understood the procession will be made up of Montreal units. There are numbers of men attending this University who have been overseas, but not with Montreal units, and would it not be a good thing to have all ex-army men of McGill march in a body as representative of the University?

Everybody could come in uniform or "muff" and there are numbers of ex-officers among us who could take over the parade and run it off in the proper manner.
If we were to be a body representing the University I feel fully confident that every man who has been in any branch of the service would back it up to the limit and we would have the best turnout in the City.

Could not a meeting be called regarding something like this? I am sure it would be a success.
Yours sincerely,
J. W. L.

Mr. Editor,

Having been one of a large number who enjoyed a very pleasant time at the Banquet given at the Royal Victoria College on Saturday last I wish to offer a suggestion which I think will meet with generous support from the student body.

Why cannot these dances be held in the Union for a couple of hours on Saturday afternoons during the dull

The Man Who Thinks

The word Bible Study in the mind of the average student brings up an association of a sort of nausea. Amongst the majority of men to-day the Bible student is often regarded as a narrow sanctimonious individual with spectacles and long hair, and with hardly enough man in him to affect the world. For fear of not appearing orthodox man has so often dreaded to depart from conventional belief and thought.

Happily the day is with us when the man who thinks and thinks for himself is coming into his own. At no age has there been such freedom and individuality of thought—and it is to such an age with each man developing his own brain and not trying to imitate another man's, that our great hope in the future depends. We need men with character, with high ideals, men of good sound sense, originality and the courage to stand against the mob.

The Bible has been and I have no doubt always will be a great book. As a book rich in wisdom, in legend and history, it is eminently valuable and as a spiritual and ethical guide it is indisputable. I think no man after sound judgment will dispute that. Nevertheless while I believe that the Bible withholds a great store of wealth for the mind that delves into it, I am firmly convinced that this age is one which requires modern thought as well as ancient.

We are living in the grandest, most momentous epoch in the world's history. Science, commerce, travel and the great war have broadened our minds and developed our vision. We feel that we live in a great Present and must not dwarf ourselves by too much imitation of the Past. Great as was the ancient Hebrew race with its prophets and patriarchs, we exist in an era in which greater, broader men than these are needed—men as independent, as powerful, as Moses and David and Isaiah were independent and powerful.

We have been too apt in the past to listen to one teacher, and exclude all others from our realm of thought. Can any one man have a monopoly of truth? We need to listen openly to the words of all our thinkers that we may through a process of selection, find what seems to us nearest to the truth.

Hence while an intensive study of one great man's gospel, one great thinker's life and words, is extremely helpful and stimulating—we still have wisdom and truth from a thousand minds and we need them all. Buddha, Plato, Socrates and Jesus all saw life from different aspects. We need to see it from a thousand aspects to get an approach to what is true.

This is another appeal to the thinkers of our university. In a time like this a man who prides himself in his independence and original intelligence should not fear to speak up. Contradiction and criticism can never injure a man if he essentially is all right himself. We need the radicals; the skeptics, the heretics, the dogmatists and unbelievers, provided that they think—and be honest and sincere about it. All the greatest men in history have been original thinkers, iconoclasts and heretics. These men were always hounded to death by their blundering fellows until a more enlightened posterity recognized their truth and greatness, and call them divine.

It is therefore such men as think, if there be any in this college of ours, that we need. An opportunity is being offered to such men to group themselves into discussion conferences, to thrash out a few problems of life and do a little solid thinking in an age of confectionery. We do not want anemic minds, we want large brains with red blood in them. Meet at Room A, Strathcona Hall, on Tuesday, 21st, at from 6 p.m. till 8 p.m.

UBIQUE

Editor,

Many of the correspondents have been lately regarding our social welfare and laying emphasis on the possibilities of a masquerade ball. Halloween is approaching and with it there doesn't seem to be anything doing in this respect. Cannot something be got up for this event, either a masquerade or a meeting of the students in some place to pass the night away in a manner befitting it.

During the past few years the theatre nights have been forbidden, but cannot the body responsible for this be again approached, so that the various faculties can hold this very popular occasion. We are sure that under proper management the night could be made a great success without any disagreeable results being attached to it.

So hoping to see something done in this direction soon,
Yours truly,
ROMEO.

COM. SOCIETY REORGANIZES FRIDAY NEXT

Freshmen In Commerce Urge To Join.

COMPREHENSIVE PLAN.

The number of students in the Department of Commerce may not seem astounding to a newcomer to the University, but to an old student, it is astounding. When the writer entered upon his course here, there were only two men in the 2nd year and five in the 1st year. Very few had ever heard of the School of Commerce, and those who did, thought of it only as a handful of men tucked away in some corner of the Arts Building. The following year, imagine the surprise of these same five students (for in those days the course lasted only two years) when they heard that fifteen had enrolled for the 1st year. It was not long before an idea of their own growing importance came over these twenty seekers after commercial knowledge. But with numbers, there came also a desire for organization. Something was required to place these students in closer touch with each other. A need was felt for some body that could represent the School of Commerce as a whole.

With the purpose of endeavoring to satisfy this need, a meeting was called during the first week of last December to decide what could be done. After much discussion, it was decided to organize a Commercial Society, and a committee was chosen to draw up a constitution. This committee met and carried out its duties. The constitution was adopted by the students on Dec. 18th, 1918, who thus became an organized body.

During the remainder of the season, the Society held fortnightly meetings, at which various programmes were presented. At the opening meeting, Mr. R. M. Sugars, the Honorary President, spoke on the "Importance of the Study of Commerce." At the next meeting, a most interesting debate took place, on the vital topic of "Railroad Nationalization." This was followed by an explanatory paper on "Railroads." Dr. Villard spoke at the third meeting, and, as usual, he retained the undivided interest of all his hearers from beginning to end. His subject was "The Future Trade Relations between Canada and France." A paper on "Argentina," and a debate on the subject of "Prohibition in Quebec," constituted another programme. At its next gathering, the Society listened with great interest to a paper on the "Advantages of Tariff," a speech on the "Elements of Banking," and an essay on "Canada's National Resources." And finally, to bring a good year's work to a good close, a grand banquet was held at which the members were given the opportunity of displaying a different kind of talent from that shown at the regular meetings.

This year it is proposed to carry on the excellent work done by the Society last year, but to do so the earnest support and co-operation of the 1st year Commercial students is essential. Their numbers are so large that it would be absolutely impossible to make each member individually acquainted with the aims of the Society. For this reason, use is being made of the "Daily" to bring before the Freshmen the importance of becoming a member of the Society, both for their good and for the improvement and advancement of the School of Commerce itself.

The aims of the Society are two, viz., the arousing of greater interest in the Commerce cause, by the discussing of commercial topics, and the arranging of social functions for the purpose of bringing the students closer together. It is to be hoped that every student will see how laudable are the aims that the Society has in view, and will show his or her interest by being present at the re-organization meeting. This meeting will be held on Friday next, Oct. 24th, at 7.30 p.m., in Room 16 of the Arts Building. All Commerce students will be heartily welcome. Big thing, are being planned for this year in all the activities of the University. Big things will be planned for the Society if you will lend your support. It should become one of the most important at the College. Come, and do your part on Friday. Make this Society permanent! We've started it! Help us run it, this year! Next year, you carry it on!

NOTICES

CONCERNING "BOXES."

During the past it has been the custom to place some relatively important event to take place at some future date in what is technically known as a "box." At the present time every man from the freshman up who has some little bit of news which he wished to impart to the student body comes into the office and demands a "box." These boxes were especially devised in order to give particular prominence to some really important item and consequently their effectiveness must be diminished if they appear in large numbers with each issue.

With to-morrow's issue all notices will appear under the heading "Notices," and will be accepted only under those conditions. Should the news editor deem the article submitted of extreme importance as to warrant some special heading he will of his own accord place on the article the necessary instructions to the printer.

Wanted — A man to carry copy. Good wages. Apply to T. Lalanne, McGill Union.

Physical examination will be held for the following men to-day in the East Wing of the Arts Building:—
Arts and Science men whose surnames begin with D, E or F, 4.30 to 5.30.

Medicine, Dentistry and Law whose surnames begin with I, J, K or L, 5.30 to 6.30.

RET. MEDS.

There will be a meeting of the Returned Med. Undergrad Association Thursday, Oct. 23rd, at 7.30 p.m., New Med.

WANTED AT THE LIBRARY.

The following annuals, periodicals, and newspapers are wanted at the Library:

McGill Annual: vols. 3, 18 and 19.
Canadian Machine Gunners: Nos. 1-4, 6-7, 11, 13 and 16.
Also any other trench newspapers. Those willing to sell or otherwise part with any of the above should apply at the desk in the library any day between 9 and 5.

DRESS AT UNION.

Interfaculty football men must in future dress at Union and not at the Stadium, as has been the custom in the past, as the dressing-room there is limited in size.

FOUND.

Fountain Pen. Owner may have same by applying at Daily Office any evening.

BAND.

There will be a band practice to-day at 7.30 p.m. in the Union. In view of the proposed visit of the Prince of Wales at a College football game, the importance of a College band has greatly increased. Basses and Trombones are badly needed, and men who can play either are earnestly requested to turn out at the practices.

WESTERN CLUB.

Will all Westerners who attended the meeting on Thursday night, and others who wish to join the Club, please sign up before Wednesday noon, in the book provided for the purpose, which will be found with the Hall Porter at the Union.

LIT. MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the Literary Society to-day at 5 p.m. in the Smoking Room, Arts Building. The election of officers and discussion of policy for year will be taken up.

HISTORICAL CLUB.

The first meeting of the club will be held on Wednesday night, the 22nd, at Strathcona Hall, when Mr. Tartak, of the Canadian Siberian Expeditionary Force, will speak on his experiences in Siberia. This is sure to be exceedingly interesting and every member, both old and prospective, is urged to be present.
There are still a few places vacant and any members of the third or fourth years desirous of joining the club are requested to send in their applications at once to the secretary, A. W. Stuart, Strathcona Hall.

AMERICANS ATTENTION.

First meeting of the American Club is to be held at 7.45 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 23rd, at the Union, in the Common Room.

It is the first meeting of our club since the conclusion of the war. Turn out and let us get back on the map at McGill.

The business of this meeting is the election of officers and a get-together so that we may outline our programme for the coming college year.

Let us start right with every American at McGill present. Show some of that much talked-of American pop. Turn out. All up. 7.45 the Union, Oct. 23rd, 1919.

MEDS. ATTENTION.

There will be a workout of the football team this p.m. at four o'clock. As many as possible are requested to turn out—especially those who have been playing—and all others having a knowledge of the game. This is our last practice and a full attendance is necessary. So all up promptly.

ALLIANCE FRANCAISE.

The first re-union of the Alliance Francaise of Montreal for the season 1919-20, will be held in the Ball Room of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, on Wednesday evening, October 22nd, at 8.15 p.m. The speaker of the evening will be Capt. Rene du Roure, associate professor French in Faculty of Arts, who will give an address on "L'Apres Guerre et les Lettres Francaise."

TWO RECORDS ARE SMASHED AT VARSITY

Toronto Has Good Field and Track Men.

STRONG TRACK TEAM.

Hurdles and Discus Records Broken By Men Who Will Compete Here.

Varsity held their annual field day on Friday last with a fine number of contestants and with very satisfactory results. For two of the Varsity records were smashed at the meet. The discus record made in 1907 was cast to the winds when R. S. Foster made a new mark of 112 ft. 3 in. (it is reported that he has hurled it 120 feet in practice). The 120 yd. hurdles record, which was made by the late R. S. Foster, was broken by a man whose time for the new record made in 1909 was beaten by K. L. Carruthers in 16 2-5 seconds. The latter is an athlete of overseas fame, for he captained the Canadian track team on the other side, he appears to be a hard man to run up against. He also took the leading honours in the high jump, although he spiked himself in this event. Joe Breen of football fame, was the pick of the sprinters, winning the hundred and the two-hundred by an easy margin. The four-hundred went to Smylie who was apparently in a class by himself amongst the Varsity men for that distance. The distance events were noteworthy because of their terrific finishes, in the mile, the winner, Croll, got the event by a mere margin of three feet, won by a sprint at the finish. The winner of the three-mile event won likewise by a final sprint over his opponent.

The following are the results, and the team which comes down to McGill this week-end is to be chosen from the following successful competitors:—

100 yards—1. Breen; 2. Harris; 3. Wade. Time 19 4-5 seconds.
Pole vault—1. Countrymen; 2. McIntyre; distance 10 ft. 3 in.
16-lb. Hammer—1. Middleton; 2. Foster. Distance 91 ft. 2 in.
Mile Run—1. Croll; 2. Jamieson. Time 4:58.
Half-mile Run—1. Porter; 2. McLeod. Time 2:12 1-5 min.
Running High Jump—1. Carruthers; 2. Ridley; Height 5 ft. 4 in.
Shotput—1. Foster; 2. Miller; Distance 35 ft. 2 in.
220 yds. Dash—1. Breen; 2. Coslett; time 23 4-5 sec.
Running Broad Jump—1. Ridley; 2. Smylie; distance 19 ft. 1-2 in.
Discus Throw—1. Carruthers; distance 112 ft. 9 in.
120 yard Hurdles—1. Carruthers; 2. Rice; time 16 3-5 sec.
440 yards—1. Smylie; 2. Ryckman; time 53 1-5 sec.
3 mile Run—1. Leigh; 2. Bell; time 17 min. 7 2-5 sec.

ROOTERS' CLUB SONGS

1—Tune—TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP.

Now our team is on the field, every nerve and muscle steered, And determined that they'll win or die to-day;

See these fellows, sure and strong, ready all the line along,

Ottawa will have to break and fade away.

Chorus

Cheer, then, cheer for Old McGill, boys, Raise your voices in a song, We will beat them on the play, For we're out to win to-day, And the team in Red and White'll move along.

2—Tune—DIXIE.

You want to be, you want to be

You want to be in Old McGill, boys,

Where the Red and White are in the fight,

Morning, afternoon and night.

You want to see, you want to see them,

You want to see our team rip thru' them,

You can tell the world the cup come to

M-C-G well, we all know how to spell it,

For we're going, you bet, we're going,

Yes, we're going to win to-day.

3—Tune—PUT ON YOUR OLD GREY BONNET.

Put on your Red and White sweater

For you have none better, And we'll open up another keg of beer.

It is not for knowledge that we came to college,

But to raise H—all the year.

4—Tune—TAMMANY.

James McGill!

James McGill!

Peacefully he slumbers there,

Blissful though we're on a "tear."

James McGill!

James McGill!

He's our father, well yes, rather,

James McGill.

4b—

Ottawa,

Ottawa,

Ottawa can go to H—

U. of T. and Queens as well.

Old McGill, Old McGill, Good bye! fare well! ta! ta. Race them, chase them, Race them, chase them, Old McGill.

4c—

Ottawa!

Ottawa!

Duddest team we ever saw, 'Gainst a line without a flaw.

5—Tune—TAKE ME TO THE LAND OF JAZZ.

Take me to the land of Jazz, Let me hear the kind of blues that Memphis had.

I want to step a tune that's full of ginger and pep,

Pick 'em up and lay 'em down,

Learn to do the Raz-ma-taz, Let me give you a warning.

We won't get home until morning, Cause everybody's full of Jazzbo

In the loving land of Jazz.

6—MARY.

Mary, Mary, you're the girl for me,

Mary, Mary, Paradise I see, Every time I look into your roguish eyes,

Shure I can see you're planning

On some new surprise. You darlin', Mary, Mary, Sweetest name I know.

Mary, Mary, fair as flowers that grow,

Oh, you little Irish daisy, You're driving me crazy,

Pretty Mary, I love you so.

7—Tune—JA DA.

Ja da, Ja da,

Ja da, Ja da,

Jada, jada, jing, jing, jing. That's a funny little bit of melody;

It's so soothing and appealing to me,

It goes Ja da, Ja da, Jada, jada, jing, jing, jing.

8—HAIL, ALMA MATER.

Hail! Alma Mater, we sing to thee praise,

Great our affection; tho' feeble our lays;

Nestling so peaceful and calm 'neath the hill;

Fondly we love thee, our dear old McGill.

9—COME FILL YOUR GLASSES UP.

Come fill your glasses up To McGill, McGill, McGill,

Come drink a loving cup To McGill, McGill, McGill.

We will drink the wine to-night,

Drink the wine that makes hearts light,

Come fill your glasses up To McGill, McGill, McGill.

Come sing a joyous song To McGill, McGill, McGill, Sing as we march along To McGill, McGill, McGill. We will rally on the field, We will make our rivals yield, Victory shall crown the shield To McGill, McGill, McGill.

10—Tune—COME ON PAPA.

Come on McGill

Get right into the game; Don't stop to wait

But play them up. You start to raise with them

What we call ze deuce You buck right through their line Like through a Charlotte Russe.

Come on McGill

Beneath the shining sun You make the play

That wins the day. We'll give you the yells like

ROOTERS do

Each time you ask for one, we'll give you two.

We're out for gore And we'll make them roar,

Yes we will. Show them how, Do it now

COME ON MCGILL!

11—Tune—"I'M FOREVER BLOWING BUBBLES."

We're forever scoring touch-downs,

Touch-downs well across the line;

They come so fast From the first to last

That all our foes are quite downcast;

Points are quickly mounting

Mounting all the time We're forever scoring, touch-downs, Touch-downs well across the line.

12—Tune—"HOW YA GONNA KEEP 'EM DOWN ON THE FARM."

How ya gonna keep us from wining this game?

That's what we'd like to know.

How ya gonna keep us from going over

Over the line, most of the time?

How ya gonna keep us from scoring points?

That's the mystery.

You thought that you could beat us from the start

But now you know that you're not quite so smart.

How ya gonna keep us from winning the game?

That's what we'd like to know.

TRACK IS SHOWING BETTER FORM

steadily for the high jump and their marks will not be far apart when the final results are set down. Foss changed his style of jumping last week and the results has been a great increase in the height at which he is able to go over; by the end of the week he should be able to increase his mark of last week by another inch or two. Muller will also train for this event and may also be used at the meet. Antliff and Muller are working out at the pole vault every day and will be able to show their best on the day of the meet.

Kennedy, Hay and Johnson are being worked out at the hundred. It is not yet decided definitely to place any particular men in the other events. The entries will be made on the showing of men at the practice this week. Some surprises may be in store when the final list of entries are made but it is certain that a very strong team will be entered.

At the meeting of the track team last night W. S. Antliff was chosen captain of the team for this year. Antliff, the only man on the team who was with them before the war and he was naturally the unanimous choice of the men present.

The whole team was present at the training table last night and will continue there until after the meet is over. The sprinters practice will begin at 4 o'clock today and will be followed by a practice for the weight men at 4.30 o'clock. The men are reminded again that arrangements have been made whereby they will be given their attendance for the lectures they miss between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock in the afternoons, this week.

ROOTERS ATTENTION.

Rooters will practice at the Union Smoker at 8 o'clock to-night.

WALKING RECORD

How far can a man travel on his feet in one day? So far as known, a record made in 1882 has never been equaled. In Madison Square Garden, New York, On February 27, 1882, the Englishman Charles Rowell, starting at midnight, walked and ran 150 miles during that day, or to be specific, in 22 hours 23 minutes 25 seconds. An extraordinary thing about this record is that it was intended to represent merely the first day in a six days "go as you please." By Wednesday night he had covered more than half of 700 miles, but on the next day he felt the contest. His first day's record remains however, as a world's distance for 24 hours.

college matters with a freedom which fifty years ago, would have been considered scandalous.

HARRIER CLUB HOLDS TRYOUT

Nine Men Out At First Run—More Candidates Needed.

The initial run of the college Harrier Club was held this afternoon at five o'clock from the Stadium. Some nine men were out in uniform and they made a start from the Stadium, up Fletcher's Field, under the incline railway, along the road over the upper reservoir, down the serpentine to Pine Ave. and Peel St. then down Pine Ave. back to the Stadium. The run was roughly about three miles and as a tryout, was quite successful. The men all shaped up well and took the run nicely. Antliff was there with his old form and he and Hamilton are a fine backbone for the team. Some keen newcomers were up for the trial and showed that although they were newcomers at college they were by no means new at the harrier game. Prominent among these latter was Norm. (Egg) who has already distinguished himself at distance work by his school record.

Although the men that were out gave encouragement to the executive, yet they seem deeply disappointed that more interest has not been taken to date in the activities of the club. Weather it is carelessness of more indifference on the part of those who everybody knows are quite capable, is difficult to faithom. Nevertheless, more men will have to be out, and more men doubtless will turn out when they hear that all men who finish in the coming Intercollegiate Harrier Meet will be awarded a second grade plain "M" and the fir. This event comes in the near future and five-and-a-half miles in length. As a preliminary to the big event, the executive have decided to hold an Intercollegiate Harrier race in two weeks' time under similar conditions as the Intercollegiate event. The next practice of the club is called for Thursday next at five p.m. at the Stadium and it is hoped and expected that this time the executive that is working so hard for the success of the club will not be disappointed in the interest taken and the energy displayed.

STUPENDOUS PLANS MADE FOR SMOKER

First Event Of Its Kind This Season.

JAZZ BAND OUT.

Peppy Songs, Good Jokes and Smokes, and Fine Fellowships To Be Found To-Night.

The big event of the season is booked for tonight—it's the Union Smoker and promises to be full of pep. The talent that has been procured embraces the foremost of the city's jazz artists and comedians. The singing Cyclone Jazz Band are going to be out, with full vim and vigour; the college band led by Archie Jenks, famed of yore for his energetic pep. Then Ed. Tremble is going to give his lightning sketches that of late have become so popular with the Freshmen, who were delighted with them last week.

Most of the season last week, "Jazz Clouthier" will be on deck with his scintillating sketches. He charmed the maidens of the South Sea Isles recently. Otto Schmidt will favor the audience with his violin selections. Jimmie Rice has promised to contribute a monologue or two, and as all know, his sermonettes need no introduction.

Smokes are going to be plentiful and are to be furnished free, gratis to all, including First Year men, provided they are as old as the law decrees they must be. Community singing is to be a feature of the evening, led by Mr. Jenks, and this will serve to give everyone an opportunity of contributing towards the success of the evening. Refreshments, the very best that the grill can furnish, are to be given in the generous fashion for which the Union is noted. These will be served in the grill itself during the later part of the evening, and the guests are reminded not to crowd going down the stairway to the dining-room.

The Union House Committee have spared no efforts whatever in the way of guaranteeing an evening that will be the biggest event in college smokers since the good old pre-war days. It is going to be a stupendous rally of all McGill men, one hum of song and music, amid the delicate aroma of fags and stogies, and all under the kindly portals of the Union. Come, and enjoy yourself; don't hesitate till you are sure that all the crowd are going, for they are going anyway. Come along with them, then, all out at the Union tonight at eight.

GLOBE TROTTER.

One of the most remarkable pedestrian feats ever known is probably Edward Payson Weston, who walked in one day from Philadelphia to New York, a distance of ninety-five miles. He left the City Hall in Philadelphia at five minutes after midnight, and reached the City Hall in New York at 11:55 p.m. A year later he walked over the same route, he had walked forty years before, not only his own previous time by many hours, and going 200 miles in 21 days, 20 hours. Of all the rivals an athlete has to face the most difficult to overcome is his past self.

Monday Night at the Theatres

THE ORPHEUM.

The production of the Orpheum Players this week, "Mother Carey's Chickens," is one of outstanding excellence and worth. The cast calls for several additions to the regular players, who in spite of difficulties, bound to arise under such conditions, keep up the standard of the production. In the same way the setting, a one horse town, provides great opportunities for humor in the portraiture of characters. In this connection, Edith Spencer, in a novel role, excelled herself, her antics, as the town hen peck, keeping the audience laughing, as long as she is on the stage. Margaret Knight's acting is, if anything, even above its usual standard, while Helen Beresford, as Mother Carey, has a role well suited to her talent and to which she does full justice.

The central figure in the plot is Mother Carey, who, acting on policy, that "there is always room in a mother's heart for one child more," manages to leave behind her a trail of happiness and love. Her chickens are her faithful children and in fact all her country neighbors, who are attracted by her big heart and "flowing" personality.

Thus, besides the humor, there is woven into the plot, much that is romantic, tender, and appealing. The entire production is one that we can heartily recommend.

THE PRINCESS.

This week the Princess Theatre presents a programme of headliners. From the opening to the closing each number is unique.

The opening pictures are good, showing "What's On" in Great Britain and Canada.

Special mention must be made of the Wilson Aubrey Trio, the comedy gymnasts and wrestlers. In a number full of interest they show the latest gymnastic stunts mixed with the usual comedy, but with a refinement not usually given with such a number.

Nan Grey is especially pleasing in her Scotch songs. Her presentation of "Laude" songs were worthy of Harry Lauder himself.

Bayonne Whittle and Walter Huston in their act called "Shoes," give a pleasing turn and incidentally give good advice.

"Acted Songs," by Joseph E. Howard and Rittelyn Clark, is good. Old and new songs are given in pleasing fashion. The dancing by Monsieur Adolphus and Miss Ethel Gilmore shows what an art dancing may become when presented by artists.

Altogether the programme is one worthy of the Princess, and an evening spent at this theatre will not be counted mispent.

IMPERIAL.

This week's offering at the Imperial is an excellent all-round show, which is bound to please the most exacting of movie-lovers. At any rate this hearty applause of a large first-night audience would seem to indicate the popularity of the bill.

The scene of "In Wrong," the headliner of this week's programme, is laid in a typical little New England country town. Jack Pickford, as Johnny Spivins, the hero of the boy-and-girl romance, has many opportunities throughout the story of displaying some very creditable comedy acting. The story deals with the struggle of a much-misunderstood grocer's boy to obtain the appreciation of his home-town. George Dromgold, as Morgan Coleman, the flashily dressed young man from the city, succeeds for a time in winning the affections of Johnny's "best girl," Miller Fields, played by Marguerite de la Motte. But this state of affairs is only temporary, and, although Johnny's rival plays the part of the hero in rescuing the heroine from drowning, the despised grocer's boy has an opportunity of proving his worth by rounding up single-handed a trio of bank-robbers who were holding the entire male population of the town at bay.

The musical part of the programme is well up to the usual high standard of the Imperial Orchestra. The better-known selections of Bizet's Carmen are played followed by Weatherby's "Three for Jack," sung by Mr. Joseph Martel, the well-known baritone.

A fast, furious and highly amusing Larry Lemon Vitagraph comedy, with that acrobatic genuine at his best, is supplemented by a really excellent number of the Mutt and Jeff comedies picturing that inimitable pair as Swiss cheese makers in the Alps.

"Topics of the Day," the Kinogram and the British Government official news conclude this week's offering.

THE HOLMAN.

An Universal film, "The Brute Breaker," featuring Frank Mayo, was the feature of the programme. The rushing streams and stately pines of the Canadian Woods form the background for the picture, which abounds in exciting incidents. A stranger arrives at Camp McKillick, and asks for work. He gains the hatred of Baptiste, the camp bully, who tries to kill him. The stranger, however, suddenly leaves the camp. Baptiste collects some of his friends and when the stranger returns they try to kill him. Baptiste then kidnaps Marjorie, the camp superintendent's daughter, and fires the camp. The stranger rescues Marjorie and beats the bully. He proves to be the owner of the camp, and succeeds in winning Marjorie's hand.

The 17th episode of "Elmo, the Mighty," titled "The Plunge," proved very exciting. A comedy and news pictorial were also shown.

Mr. Downes, of New York, sang "Oh, What a Pal was Mary," and an encore, "Do la la, Oul, Oul." This was followed by community singing, led by Mr. Fiddes, which is as popular as ever.

"Till We Meet Again," was sang several times by the enthusiastic audience.

NEW GRAND.

The bill at the New Grand this week is an exceptionally good one. The chief picture "The World and Its Women," with Geraldine Farrar and her husband, Lou Tellegen, is well worth seeing. The plot of the story occurs in Russia. An American living there has a small daughter, who, while extremely young, meets Prince Michael of Russia. From the moment of their first meeting she never forgets him. They grow up and one day, while Prince Michael's father is passing the girl's house, he hears her sing an old folk song, of which he is extremely fond. He invites her to his palace, to sing again to him. While there, she sees the young Prince in the act of kissing another woman. Her love for him then shows up, and she departs in downcast spirit. Her father, invested in some American concern, loses all his money, and as a result, dies. He leaves his daughter to live on the generosity of his old friend, the father of Prince Michael, who sends her to St. Petersburg to cultivate her voice. From there she goes into Grand opera, and while singing one night, she is recognized by the young Prince Michael. He looks her up after, and they become quite friends.

Then the war breaks out, and Prince Michael has to go. While the war progresses, Bolshevism is spreading. Marcia Warren, the opera singer, played by Geraldine Farrar, is claimed by her rejected suitor, Prince Michael, played by Lou Tellegen, returns from the fighting line, and is found by the Bolsheviks in Marcia's apartment. Her ready wit saves the situation, and after a series of thrilling escapes, and fighting, the two lovers are able to make their departure to Archangel safely. The scenes are fine, and all the characters are all taken by skilful artists, who help to make the picture one worthy of note.

Besides the chief feature, Educational Films are shown. These are also interesting, especially the cartoon comedy. A Christie Comedy and Canadian National Pictorial, showing the Prince in the West, complete an extraordinarily good programme.

THE GAYETY.

The bill at the Gayety this week is by far superior to anything that has been played at the St. Urbain street house this season. The chorus is especially well-trained; their singing and dancing are well above the average. The musical part of the programme is unusually good; the ensemble male singing is worthy of mention; "The Seven Musical Steps" give a melange of saxophone and brass music that compares favorably with vaudeville jazz-band.

There are four comedians in the cast, including Bobby Clark. His eccentricities and contortions drew round after round of applause from the audience at the first evening performance. Kelso Brothers and Bolzar Sisters provide gymnastic and acrobatic acts of first-class merit. The finales of the first and second acts are well carried out in costuming, grouping and dancing.

The leading ladies and chorus are both excellent, and the performance far surpasses the usual standard set by burlesque.

LOEW'S.

"Concentration" is the outstanding feature of this week's programme. Mr. George Lovett, as the mental marvel, regales the audience with music and mirth. The "Incomparable Mystic Band," acting in co-operation with Zenda, a telepathist, greatly enhances the spectacular scene. Questions which perplex you may be written on a slip of paper and will be correctly answered for you. She will also give name and initial of the engineer. The mystery band are able, by "thought communication" to interpret the selection you desire them to play, and not only announces the name, but render the selection of your choice. Some thirty items ranging from "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles" to "Tales from Hoffman" exhibited the wonderful skill of these musicians.

Another item having to do with the realms of mystery was Jack Merlin's card tricks. Under the close scrutiny of a member of the audience and "Ambitious," one of the stage hands, he successfully changed the number of spots on the cards, likewise their color, meanwhile amusing the audience with his jokes, at the expense of his "assistants."

Cook and Oatman have some song numbers on modern matrimonial ways which brought forth applause from the audience. Lony Nase has a variety of quaint song-hits, all her own, perhaps her most popular number being the courtship, social life and divorce of Mr. Big Ben and Miss Ingersoll of Elgin, Illinois.

Judging from applause it would appear that Connelia and Adele were the most popular among the vaudeville numbers. They excelled in a variety of very clever dance scenes. Fido, an intelligent Bull Terrier, imitates the antics of his master.

On the screen Baby Marie's Round-up is a clean and clever comedy which brings forth volumes of laughter from a thoroughly delighted house. Clara Kimball Young in "The Better Wife," is a romance with a moral. Loew's British Canadian News is up to its usual high water mark; besides the Prince and Belgian royal visitors, prominence is given to women aviators and women swimmers.

The Orchestral overture included, "The Land of the Maple and Beaver," and selections from Chu Chin Chow, which were met with much appreciation by a crowded house.

ORCHESTRA HAVE FINE REHEARSAL

Twenty-Five Musicians Held Successful Practice—Still Some Vacancies.

The first rehearsal of the McGill Students' Orchestra took place in the Hall yesterday evening. Viewed as a first attempt, the performance of our musicians may be regarded as an unqualified success.

Some twenty-five men turned out, and several pieces were played under the direction of the manager, A. P. Grigg, Law '21. No attempt at drilling was made, the object being merely to discover the men's collective capability. The result far surpassed all expectations. From a critical view point, there is still room for vast improvement in the way of sympathetic interpretation. But the players kept remarkably well, which is more than could reasonably have been expected.

The following instruments were not represented at the practice: violin, cello, clarinet, horn, trombone and oboe. Surely some of these gaps will be filled by the time the next practice is held. Anyone who can play any of these instruments is earnestly requested to turn out next Monday at Strathcona Hall, at 7:15 p.m. In fact there is plenty of room for recruits, no matter what instrument they may play.

After last night's performance, it is safe to say that the Orchestra has come to stay. It rests with each individual member to see that the practices are regularly attended, and that as many members as possible are obtained.

Watch the Daily for further announcements.
